To

Colonel His Highness Maharaja
Sir Sri Krishnaraja Wadiyar Bahadur,
G.C.S.I., G.B.E.,
Maharaja of Mysore.

Most honoured and valued friend,

On the termination of my Viceroyalty, and on the eve of my departure from India, I write to bid Your Highness a very cordial farewell.

I shall carry away with me very pleasant recollections of my visit to Mysore in 1929, and although I am severing my official connection with India and the Indian States Your Highness may rest assured that my personal interest in the progress and development of Mysore will remain unabated, as also my sincere admiration of the efficiency with which Your Highness' State is administered.

The coming years are likely to produce many important changes in the constitution both of British India and of the Indian States, and it must be a source of satisfaction to Your Highness that the administration of the Mysore State can face criticism and development without fear of the future. The presence of Your Highness' representative at the Round Table Conference was of great value to His Majesty's Government in their attempt to solve the constitutional difficulties which beset India. It is with sincere regret that I take leave of Your Highness and I leave with you my sincere good wishes for the future welfare of Your Highness and your State.

I desire to express the high consideration which I entertain for Your Highness, and to subscribe myself,

Your Highness' sincere friend,

Sd. Irwin

Viceroy and Governor General of India.
